Re: Rules and Regulations Implementing the Truth in Caller ID Act of 2009, WC
Docket No. 11-39

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On June 7, 2011, I spoke by telephone with Angela Kronenberg, Legal Advisor to Commissioner Clyburn, and on June 8, 2011, I spoke by telephone with Margaret McCarthy, Policy Advisor to Commissioner Copps. As providers of Caller ID services, Verizon and Verizon Wireless have supported government efforts, including The Truth in Caller ID Act of 2009, to prohibit calling parties from defrauding the called party by causing false or misleading Caller ID information to be transmitted. During the call, I emphasized the need to avoid burdensome requirements on carriers and interconnected VoIP providers to verify the information selected by customers that may stifle innovation.¹ I also discussed Verizon's support for exemptions for existing services offered by carriers and interconnected VoIP providers where the requisite intent is clearly absent,² or for the prohibition in the Commission's rules to focus on the conduct of the caller, rather than the provider.³

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions regarding this letter.

Sincerely,
